

US Women's Caucus at the UN

CSW 67 - Gender and Technology

Fast Facts Gender Access to Technology

For more facts about Gender and Technology, please check out the US Women's Caucus at the UN's website at <http://www.uswomenscaucus.org> where you will find facts as well as policy briefs and recommendations on all of the key issues of concern at the UN CSW 67 conference in NY March 6-17.

Less than 50% of the Global South nations have internet access compared with the advanced regions.

Women make up 25% of workers in data and AI, 15% in engineering roles and 12% in cloud computing roles.

Even when women have the same levels of education, literacy and income they are 7% less likely to own a phone and 15% less likely to use mobile internet.

Save the Date

March 9, 2023

4:00 p.m.

US Women's Caucus at the UN – CSW 67 meeting

St Bartholomew's Church
109 E. 50th Street
NY 10022

US Feminists Collaborating To Advance Human Rights And Gender Equity For Women And Girls Worldwide

If you are Interested in learning more about the US Women's Caucus, please join us for a discussion about the agreed conclusions advocacy for women's issues at the UN .

www.uswomenscaucus.org

info@uswomenscaucus.org